Many Taxpayers Paying by Mail, Cannon Reports

County Treasurer Maynard Cannon reports that over 40 per cent of the taxes collected to date have been received by mail. Many taxpayers are taking advantage of this easy way to pay their taxes, thereby avoiding any delay in his office before being able to be waited on.

He states that this high percentage of collection by mail has helped his office handle collections more efficiently, thereby causing less inconvenience to the taxpayers.

He is urging everyone who possibly can to forward their taxes by mail. The receipted statement will be promptly returned upon receipt of their taxes.

He also wishes to remind all taxpayers to bring their tax notice when paying taxes, thus causing less delay and expense.

Castle Files Suit Against 49 Truckers For Unpaid '52 Fees

SPRINGFIELD — Atty. Gen. Latham Castle today brought suit in Sangamon County Circuit Court against 49 truck operators for almost $34,000 in unpaid 1952 license fees.

The fees are outstanding after payment was deferred pending a court challenge of the 1951 law increasing the truck license fees. Castle said more than nine million dollars in delinquent fees has been collected and some four million dollars in fees still are outstanding.

Next week's program will be in charge of Dr. B. E. Montgomery.

Avah Phillips Tells Rotary of Scholarship Test

Miss Avah Phillips, who won a certificate of merit in a national scholarship program, was the speaker at the Rotary meeting Monday.

Miss Phillips was introduced by Harker Miley, program chairman, and spoke on the recent test in which she won a certificate of merit. More than 4,300 certificates were awarded to students from every state in the nation, representing the top one half of one per cent in ability of all high school seniors. These scholarships were made possible by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, whose program is the largest of its kind in American history.

In addition to this award, Miss Phillips has won honors in another national test, finishing 21st in the nation and winning a $200 scholarship.

Miss Phillips is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brose Phillips and is a member of the graduation class at the Harrisburg Township high school.

Guests at the Rotary meeting included Thomas Murphy, Eldorado, Walter Baker, Colorado Springs, Colo., and Phillip Pankey, son and guest of his father, Lowden Pankey.

Tom Davenport was welcomed into the club as a new member, making the 38th member of the club.

Brose Phillips, principal at the Dorrisville grade school, introduced the following two honor students from the Dorrisville school: Patricia Dill, 8th grade student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Dill, and Wendell McClusky, 7th grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane McClusky.

Both students have been outstanding scholars, active in school affairs, and present every day at school.

Next week's program will be in charge of Dr. B. E. Montgomery.

Sullivan Election Contest Thrown Out by Judge

Speed Plans to Put New Farm Bill Into Effect

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson conferred today with President Eisenhower on plans to put the new farm bill into operation as quickly as possible.

Benson paid an early morning call on Mr. Eisenhower who signed the "second choice" farm bill Monday to end a four-month election-year fight with the Democratic-controlled Congress. Benson reiterated his belief that the measure was considerably less than what the administration wanted but he pledged that his department will go ahead rapidly to put the new bill with its $1,200,000,000 soil bank into effect.

Benson said the soil bank provisions would have little effect on spring-planted crops because the bill was delayed in passage. But he thought a much wider application of the acreage reduction scheme would be possible for fall-seeded crops.

Sees Less Criticism

Benson said it is conceivable that certain spring-planted crops might be plowed under but, this was a detail to be determined later by the farmers and the department.

Asked whether he thought the bill would still farm belt criticism of administration agricultural policy, Benson said there is "less criticism" of the agricultural policies of the administration now than at any time since Mr. Eisenhower took office.

"I think every move the administration has made in the agricultural field has been sound," Benson said.

In signing the bill, Mr. Eisenhower called it "rich with promise," but said he was "disappointed" that the bill does not permit soil bank payments one year in advance.

The soil bank—core of the bill—authorizes the government to pay farmers up to $1.2 billion a year for taking surplus crops out of production. This is the first time the government has paid farmers on such a scale for not growing crops since the early days of the New Deal.

The bill also includes a mandatory increase in feed grain price supports, a discretionary two-price plan for rice, and a boost in corn planting allotments from 43 million to 51 million acres. The big rigid price support provisions that caused the President to veto the first farm bill earlier this year were cut from the bill.

Senators of Both Parties Praise Nomination of Seaton to Cabinet Post

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower's nomination of Fred A. Seaton to be secretary of interior won enthusiastic praise today from senators of both parties. Senate confirmation seemed certain.

Chairman James E. Murray (D-Mont.) of the Senate Interior Committee, which must approve the nomination, said the nomination was "pleasant news." Murray said Seaton is a "fine gentleman. He'll carry out the policies of the administration, but I'm sure he will give us a full and fair hearing on any problems that arise."

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), a frequent critic of past Interior Department policies, said Seaton's was "an excellent appointment and one which has my enthusiastic endorsement."

Mr. Eisenhower named Seaton to the cabinet post Monday to succeed Douglas McKay. McKay resigned April 15 to run for the Oregon Senate seat Morse now holds.

Seaton, 46-year-old Midwest newspaper publisher and former senator from Nebraska, presently is Mr. Eisenhower's deputy assistant. He served in the Senate as the appointed successor to the late Sen. Kenneth Wherry (R. Neb.) in 1951 and 1952.

In his present post, Seaton has played an important part in straightening out the administration's patronage difficulties and in maintaining liaison with the Republican National Committee.

In his selection of Seaton, Mr. Eisenhower overrode the suggestion of several western Republican senators who had endorsed acting Secretary Clarence A. Davis for the cabinet post. Seaton told reporters at the White House Monday that he had asked Davis to continue in his present job, but Davis had not yet given him an answer.

The Shawneetown high school band will be present to play. After a ribbon cutting ceremony, the bridge will be open free to the public until 6 p. m., Smith stated.

The formal bridge dedication, at which Gov. Stratton and dignitaries from Kentucky will be present, is expected around July 4.

Presbyterians Approve Merger

PHILADELPHIA — Delegates to the 168th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. predicted today it would take only another year to complete the merger of their church with the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

The proposed merger, approved Monday by the General Assembly, now must be accepted by the individual presbyteries of both churches and the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America when it meets next month at Knoxville, Tenn.

The new combined church will be known as the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and will have nearly 3.4 million members.

The Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. currently is the largest body of its denomination in the country, with some 8,300 congregations and nearly 3 million members. The United Presbyterian Church of North America has about 300,000 members in 800 congregations.

Grants Motion Of McCormick To Dismiss Case

Action Apparently Closes Case, Local Man Says

BULLETIN

Circuit Judge Caswell Crebs of Robinson threw out Dale Sullivan's election contest today from the bench in Gallatin county circuit court.

The action came on granting of a supplementary motion by attorneys of C. L. McCormick of Vienna to dismiss the case.

Time was the angle involved. The supplementary motion asked dismissal on the grounds that notice of the contest was filed too late with the state electoral board at Springfield. That was the motion that Judge Crebs granted.

Sullivan, local business man, said after the decision that it apparently closes the case.

"While I am terribly disappointed at the decision, I feel there is nothing else to do," Sullivan said. "The circuit court has final jurisdiction in the matter."

Sullivan stated that the judge admitted his grounds for a contest were good but that he was throwing out the contest because the notice was filed too late in Springfield.

Sullivan said the notice was filed 10 hours and 20 minutes too late. It was filed at 10:20 a. m. May 15 when apparently midnight May 14 was the last time to file the notice.

Sullivan was beaten out for the second spot on the Republican ticket in the April 10 Republican primary by C. L. McCormick of Vienna by 159 1-2 votes according to the official canvass of the eight-county total in the 59th Representative district. Incumbent Gordon Kerr led the ticket.

Sullivan was represented by Attorneys William Wolff of Murphysboro, L. M. Hancock, Ralph W. Choiser and Joe Butler of Harrisburg and James G. Gullett of Elizabethtown. McCormick was represented by Attorneys Scerial Thompson of Harrisburg and Ralph Harris and Charles Winters of Marion. Atty. Joe Bartley of Shawneetown represented Kerr in the case, filing an answer for him. All candidates in the April primary were defendants.

Circuit Judge Caswell Crebs of Robinson today was hearing arguments on a motion to dismiss Dale Sullivan's representative election contest.

Sullivan is contesting the results of the GOP race in the 59th district, centering his contest on C. L. McCormick of Vienna, who beat him out according to the canvassed results.

Judge Crebs first heard a supplementary motion to dismiss based on contentions that Sullivan, from Harrisburg, failed to file his notice of contest with the state electoral board and with the county canvassing boards within specified time. Atty. Charles Winters of Marion argued this contention. He also said that McCormick received his certificate of nomination from the secretary of state's office immediately after the time limit was up.

William Wolff of Murphysboro, an attorney for Sullivan, said he believed the only mandatory time provision regarding filing was the filing of the petition of contest with the circuit court within five days after the state canvassing board had finished.

Judge Crebs reserved judgment on the supplementary motion and immediately the attorneys went in to the general motion to dismiss.

The DAILY WASHINGTON
MERRY-GO-ROUND
by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Dulles and Stassen Differ Drastically Over Russia; Deportation Of Murray Chotiner's Client Was Long Delayed; F. B. I. Probe Was Mysteriously Sidetracked.

WASHINGTON. — There's more to the friction between Secretary of State Dulles and Disarmament Ambassador Harold Stassen than just two important people rubbing each other the wrong way.

The feud gets down to the basic issue of whether we should cooperate with Russia.

Stassen thinks we should talk to the Russians more; isn't averse to having conferences with them.
Believes their disarmament moves can't be discounted. Dulles, on the other hand, is inclined to poolpooh everything the Russians do, even their 1,200,000-man army cut.

He believes that conferences with the Russians get nowhere.
The Russians, knowing Stassen is more sympathetic, now go to him more than to Dulles, and it was to Stassen that Khrushchev and Bulganin tipped off their plan to make the revolutionary cut in the size of the Red Army.

One of Dulles' personal press-relations men leaked a story to the press that the meeting with Stassen was a vodka brawl—though there was no insinuation that Stassen participated.

Stassen has been able to get Eisenhower's ear on these matters, has convinced Ike that we should take a more sympathetic approach to Russia. This has irked the Secretary of State even more.

CHOTINER LAW PRACTICE

The more you look into the "law practice" of Vice President Nixon's campaign manager, Murray Chotiner, on behalf of New Jersey racketeer Marco Reginelli, the more mysterious becomes the fact that Reginelli's deportation was suspended.

The more, also, you can appreciate the late Reginelli's wisdom in reaching from Camden, N. J., to Los Angeles to employ the close friend and campaign manager of the vice president when the Justice Department moved to deport him.

Here is a play-by-play account of what happened inside and outside the Justice Department after the politically potent Murray Chot-iner was retained.

The proceedings against Reginelli had been started under the Democrats when Attorney General James McGranery listed some 100 racketeers and gangsters for deportation. Deportation was based upon Reginelli's record of 16 arrests between 1917 and 1942, six convictions, three prison sentences, and three fines. There was also a battle over who should succeed him as czar of the Jersey underworld, which battle resulted in the murder of five men in South Philadelphia and South Jersey.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

One important conviction on which the Justice Department based its deportation proceedings was for violation of the Mann Act in taking Louise Abate from New Jersey to Florida for immoral purposes in 1952. Immigration officials wanted to question Miss Abate about this trip and subpoenaed her. Suddenly she was found dead.

The circumstances of her death were suspicious. She was staying in a motel in Margate, N. J., when she received the immigration summons and Reginelli was present when she received it. Her testimony could have been extremely damaging to him. One day later she was found dead.

The coroner ruled that the death was caused by acute alcoholism, but the U. S. attorney in Atlantic City, Raymond Del Tuffo, was suspicious. He called in the FBI and also wrote a letter to the Justice Department in Washington asking for a thorough FBI investigation.

Stevenson, Kefauver Battle for Florida Vote, Look to California

WASHINGTON @—Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver battle today for Florida's Democratic convention delegation and the "bandwagon" influence the vote could have on next week's California primary.

Florida has only 28 convention votes, and either candidate could lose those and still win the Democratic nomination.

But in California's balloting a week from today, a whopping 68 convention votes are involved and sufficient prestige that the candidate losing it could early lose the nomination.

The Florida primary provides the only expression of southern sentiment between Stevenson and Kefauver in a statewide popularity vote. Florida, because of a heavy influx of northern immigrants, is not a typical deep south state, however. It voted Republican in 1952.

Primaries also were being held

J. Edgar Hoover also wrote the Criminal Division of the Justice Department stating that U. S. Attorney Tuffo had asked for an investigation. He said his agent in New Jersey felt there was no federal jurisdiction for him to investigate without an O. K. from the Justice Department; therefore Hoover wanted to know whether the Criminal Division of the Justice Department wanted him to proceed.

Officials of the Criminal Division examined the case, decided the facts were suspicious, that there might have been an obstruction of justice and that the federal government did have jurisdiction.
Accordingly, they wrote a request to the FBI to proceed with the investigation.

LOST LETTER

This request went to Rex Collings, chief of the General Crimes Section, for his O. K. and for transmission to the head of the Criminal Division for his O. K.
Collings is the man who Murray Chotiner called upon when he intervened at the Justice Department on behalf of Reginelli.

The letter was routed from Rex Collings to Dave Luce, assistant to Warren Olney, assistant attorney general in charge of the Criminal Division. But someplace in between, the letter was lost, side-tracked, or misplaced.

It was rather an important letter. It was marked with a special tab which read: "Important and urgent—rackets."

The letter was written at a time when the Justice Department was making a special drive on racketeers. Nevertheless, the recommendation to investigate the mysterious death of Louise Abate was held up in the Justice Department until it was too late.

Mr. Collings, incidentally, to whom the letter was first sent, is from California. David Luce, next in line to receive the letter, is also from California. Mr. Olney, head of the Criminal Division, is also from California. Murray Chot-iner, Nixon's campaign manager, is one of the most potent political figures in California. Latterly has been a member of the campaign school of the Republican National Committee.

This geographic affinity doesn't necessarily mean anything. But it does mean that a Senate committee with the power of subpoena should get to the bottom of this strange case.

For, while the FBI investigation order was being delayed, Reginelli finally got his American citizenship papers from Judge George T.
Naame in Reginelli's home county, Atlantic county, New Jersey, on June 21, 1955. (Naame is the brother of an attorney for Herman Kravitz, also represented by Murray Chotiner.) It took almost a year—until April 1, 1955—for the New Jersey supreme court to set Reginelli's citizenship aside.

Almost four years after Attorney General McGranery moved to deport him, the stormy career of Reginelli ended. He died in a Baltimore hospital last week.

ing an additional 11 convention

26 convention votes.

The presidential contest was not involved in Kentucky's primary.
The main battles there centered on Democratic and Republican nominations for the Senate seat now held by Democratic Sen. Earle C.
Clements.

Clements was seeking renomaination against the opposition of Rep.
Joe B. Bates. Bates had the backing of Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler. The outcome of this battle could affect the choice later of a nominee for the Senate seat of the late Alben W. Barkley. That nomination will be made by the State Democratic convention.

In the Republican primary in Kentucky, former congressman and Assistant Secretary of State Thurston B. Morton, with President Eisenhower's blessing, was seeking the Republican nomination against Julian H. Golden, former solicitor for the National Parks Service.

In Missouri the Democratic state convention Monday gave its endorsement to Sen. Stuart Symington as Missouri's favorite son candidate for the presidential nomination.

You know how it is.

Anyone who drives a car these days must sometimes drive in crawling, slow-moving traffic where it's stop-and-go or spurt-and-slow.

And if you're used to a car that handles such traffic with a continuous series of upshifts and downshifts—even automatically—then maybe you think that's the best you can have.

But it isn't. You can have Dynaflow smoothness in a new Buick—and you won't believe the difference until you try stop-and-go traffic.

For here you have absolute smoothness when you accelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness when you decelerate.

AIRCONDITIONING

FRIGIDAIRE CONDITIONING

CHECK YOUR CAR—CHECK ACCIDENTS

Here you have absolute smoothness under every road condition and traffic pace—with no lags or bumps to mark upshifts and downshifts—because no gears ever shift in Dynaflow.

It's the only transmission on the American scene today where flowing oil does the work of gears every step of the way —and where smoothness is constant, absolute and infinite.

So maybe you ought to sample a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow—and try the new thrills that go with this smoothness—

The flash-fast new getaway response—and new stepped-up gas mileage—when you press the pedal barely an inch—

The instant new full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch for a needed safety-surge—

The wallowing new might of the big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that puts the finger to it all—

And the new ride, the new handling ease, the new interiors, the new bold look of racy sweep-ahead styling.

Drop in on us this week—today if you can—and see for yourself what straightforward truth we tell you here—and what great-buy prices are keeping Buick more firmly than ever in the top 3 of America's best sellers.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Warm Weather for Most of Nation For Memorial Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Weather Bureau said in a special forecast today that "warm weather is expected over most of the nation on Memorial Day."

But it tempered this cheerful news with a forecast of "widespread thundershowers."

"Cool weather in the East and Northeast today should give way to rising temperatures" tomorrow, the bureau said.

"It is expected to continue rather hot in the Southeast."

"Warm humid weather is forecast from New York state to Texas."

Picnic-spoiling thundershowers are expected "mostly during the afternoon and evening" in a belt running from the High Sierras in northern California across the Midwest and Great Lakes region to New York.

IS YOUR HEALTH WORTH IT?

Whether we're willing to pay a price depends on how much we want the thing involved.

We all prize our health highly. Hence, years ago, men paid a heavy price in pain and patience through protracted treatments to regain health. And they probably would have endured even more in the hope their health would return.

That's why your Rx for an effective modern drug is actually worth much more than its dollar price when judged by its value in restoring and safeguarding your health.

Midget Models of Missiles Reach Speeds Of 10,000 Miles Hour

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Midget models of future intercontinental ballistic missiles have reached speeds of 10,000 miles an hour—the greatest ever achieved by man-made objects.

The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics revealed the record speed in a cautious outline of progress toward development of missiles that can stand the terrific heat generated when they burst back through the atmosphere en route to targets.

Future intercontinental missiles will streak from their launching points into space and re-enter the earth's atmosphere at meteoric speeds, creating temperatures of 20,000 degrees. Preventing them from evaporating is one of the major problems science faces.

Young Boy Refuses To Give Up Phone For Fire Report

STATESVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Authorities searched today for a young boy who refused to give up a telephone party line so a frantic young mother could report a fire that was destroying her home.

"Let it burn," the boy told a neighbor of the woman who also tried to call the fire department.

Mrs. Paul Phillips said her son, Dennis, 6, noticed flames pouring out of the roof of her home as the two left to go shopping. She dashed back into the house to call the fire department but "somebody was on the phone."

"I told him the house was on fire and that I wanted to call the fire department," she said. "But he said 'Are you kidding' and went right on talking." She said the voice seemed to be that of a boy too young for high school.

A neighbor, Hoyle Eller, ran into the house and also tried to call firemen but said the boy told him, "Let it burn."

Damage was estimated at $15,000. It is a misdemeanor in North Carolina to refuse to relinquish a party line for emergency calls.

Hits Prevailing Wage Amendment to Highway Bill

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate, with Vice President Richard Nixon casting the tie-breaking vote, today approved an amendment that would give states authority to determine prevailing wages for workers on the proposed interstate network of superhighways.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Thomas A. Wofford (D-S.C.) charged today that a "prevailing wage" amendment to the highway bill would "soak the taxpayers" and build fewer roads.

Wofford said adoption of the amendment would mean a "loss of from two to four billion dollars worth of highways by virtue of increased costs."

Wofford, a freshman senator, made the statements in his first speech before the Senate. He spoke as Senate leaders drove for passage by nightfall of the biggest road construction program in history, including a 42,500-mile interstate network of superhighways.

Wofford said the prevailing wage provision would not only boost costs on the proposed 42,500-mile interstate network of superhighways, but would "disrupt" construction of state roads.

The Democratic-sponsored amendment would require contractors to pay workers on the interstate road system prevailing wages in their area, as determined by the secretary of labor.

The amendment restores the prevailing wage provision which the Senate Public Works Committee struck from the House-passed version of the multi-billion-dollar road bill.

Woman Indicted For Killing Mate

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—A grand jury indicted a 33-year-old woman here Monday for the murder of her husband.

The indictment was returned against Mrs. Naomi Larimer for the killing of her 33-year-old husband, Noble.

Mrs. Larimer who was crippled by polio, was arraigned shortly after the indictment was returned and she entered a plea of innocent. Her trial was set tentatively for July 9.

Mrs. Larimer admitted at a coroner's inquest that she shot and killed her husband when he returned home drunk on the night of May 13. She said she was afraid he would beat her as he had done in the past.

The couple had two children who are in temporary custody of relatives and family friends.

A date for the exhumation has not been set, they said.

Clean Up '500' Track After Flooding Rains

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Speedway officials indicated today the annual 500-mile Memorial Day auto race will begin as scheduled Wednesday despite heavy rains which flooded the grounds and kept 13 cars from attempting qualifying runs.

"Our plans call for the race Wednesday," speedway publicity chief Al Bloemker said. "We believe we can get the grounds in condition and that the track will be up to par."

Tony Hulman Jr., owner of the track, said that preparations were going on to start the grind on time and that postponement was not being considered.

It appeared that the only development which could cause postponement of the $275,000 chase would be more heavy rains today, and forecasters expected only the

Litchfield Coach Resigns for Cage Post at Wood River

LITCHFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Bob Horton, Litchfield High School basketball and baseball coach for the last four years, has resigned to become head basketball coach at Wood River High School.

Horton, whose Purple Panthers are in the finals of the state prep basketball tournament at Peoria this week, will leave at the end of the current school year.

A five-inch rain which began Saturday canceled qualification trials then, and continued through Sunday to permit only 57 minutes of time trials in which five cars qualified. Additional downpours Monday kept the grounds under water two feet deep in spots and left the racing strip spotty with puddles.

The U. S. Auto Club, directing the race, ruled against further qualification runs. Late in the day the track was clear except for a stretch about 125 feet wide at the north end of the home stretch, where water seeped through the bricks and through the joints in the wall on the outside of the track.

Braves Hold First in 10-3 Win Over Cards; Amazing Pirates Beat Dodgers. 3-2

By United Press
Gene Conley passed his big test, which means the Braves are ready today for the even bigger test of presenting Milwaukee with its first pennant.

The 6-foot, 8-inch right-hander, who came off the disabled list Friday, spun six strong innings in relief Monday night to score his first victory as the Braves retained first place with a 10-3 conquest of the St. Louis Cardinals. Conley yielded eight hits but wasn't touched for a run until the ninth in giving the Braves their third straight win.

Hank Aaron led the Braves' 14-hit attack with four hits while Bobby Thomson and Del Crandall homered. Aaron now has batted .537 in the Braves' last 10 games and has his season's average up to .347.

Can Beat Dodgers
But Conley's performance was the big story because the towering side-wheeler is recognized as the pitcher who can control the powerful Brooklyn Dodgers. Big Gene had an 11-5 record in early July last year before he came down with a lame shoulder. He suffered a recurrence of the ailment in spring training and at one time was feared lost for the season.

The amazing Pittsburgh Pirates ran their winning streak to four games and took a 1½-game hold on third place with a 3-2 decision over the Dodgers. A crowd of 32,221—largest for a night game at Forbes Field in six years—was delighted as Bob Feller pitched a two-hitter and Dale Long ran his record homer streak to eight in eight games.

Friend now has beaten the Dodgers three times this season, and has an 8-2 record. He leads the majors in victories. Long, given a $2,500 raise only a few hours before Monday night's game, has a .414 average and has hit in nine straight games.

Robin Roberts made one of his rare relief appearances to help Harvey Haddix win his first game for Philadelphia as the Phillies downed the New York Giants, 5-2. Roberts choked off a Giant rally in the eighth after two hits by Willie Jones and triples by Elmer Valo and Richie Ashburn paced the Phillies to their early lead.

Bob Rush, who's scored three of the Chicago Cubs' nine triumphs this year, pitched a three-hitter to beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 4-1.

Yanks Widen Bulge
In the American League, the New York Yankees opened up a 4½-game lead when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 2-0, behind Whitey Ford's five-hitter. It was Ford's seventh victory, and he reduced his earned run average to 1.01. Frank Sullivan's wild pitch and two of three errors by rookie shortstop Don Buddin figured in the Yankee scoring.

Former teammate Steve Gromek pitched a six-hitter to give the Detroit Tigers a 3-2 decision over the second place Cleveland Indians. The first three Cleveland batters hit safely against Gromek but he yielded only three more runs the rest of the way. Ray Boone had a homer and two singles as the Tigers handed strikeout king Herb Score his fourth loss.

Enos Slaughter's two-run ninth inning homer enabled the Kansas City Athletics to come from behind and beat the Chicago White Sox, 6-4, and Chuck Diering singled home pitcher Mike Fournieles, who had doubled, in the 10th to provide the Baltimore Orioles with a 6-5 triumph over the Washington Senators in the other AL games.

State Prep Baseball Finals Will Begin At Peoria Wednesday

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — The state high school baseball tournament finals start Wednesday with four first-round games at Peoria Woodruff field.

Semifinals will be played Thursday afternoon, with the championship game set for Thursday night.

First round pairings pit Peoria Limestone against Litchfield; Freeburg against Charleston; Blue Island against Du Quoin; and Belvedere against Chicago Lane Tech.

"THE BIG CAT" AND ABE—Oliver Rollins, Carrier Mills' Harlem Globetrotter, seems to have his hands full. He has his big left hand curled around a basketball and is using his right hand to accept greetings from his boss, Abe Saperstein, owner and coach of the Globetrotters. A notation on back of picture states it was made in Wembley Stadium, London, England.

Looking at Sports

BY BILL MELTON

My overseas mail is heavier than it has been in a long time. In fact I don't remember ever receiving any overseas mail until just the last week or so, except during War II when I was in Europe and my wife and others wrote me. That mail was from the U. S., but went overseas before I received it.

Before Oliver Rollins left Carrier Mills to travel throughout a great part of the world with the Harlem Globetrotters I asked if he would drop The Daily Register a line now and then so we could keep up with him. That is why I now have an overseas correspondent.

A few days ago received a post card from Rollins mailed from Ayr, Scotland. Today had a letter from Rollins mailed from London, England, and from the Trotters' office received a couple of pictures, also from London. One of the pictures is on today's Daily Register sports page.

Rollins states he has played in seven games (letter dated May 24). Three of the seven games were played in Scotland, the other four in London. Two more games were to be played in London, then the Trotters were to move to Leicester and later to Manchester, England.

In addition to playing basketball, Rollins had been to a circus and saw things that he didn't believe possible. Also had been hobnobbing with the performers as both the circus people and Trotters were staying at the same hotel, The Rodney Hotel, Kensington, London.

Rollins also stated he was getting "writer's cramps from signing so many autographs." Sounds like the Carrier Mills boy is doing fine.

The tour, to continue for three and a half months, was only a week old when Rollins wrote. He started the letter by saying "I am having one of the best times of my life." By the time the three additional months roll around he can probably repeat that statement over many times.

Fairmount Park, located near Collinsville, is announcing a big Memorial Day racing program, starting at 2:15 p. m. This is one of two day time programs at the big horse racing plant. The other afternoon racing program is listed for July 4.

Racing is held nightly Tuesday through Saturday, with the course dark Mondays. Post time for each night session is 8:30. The present racing meet closes July 20.

When a fan in Chicago recently asked Duke Snider for his autograph, says The Sporting News, the fan called him Russ Meyer. When Snider, without a smile, asked the fan how he recognized him, the fan said, "Always see you on television, Russ." Snider wrote his own name and when he handed the paper back to the autograph hunter, he said, "Get your set adjusted."

Fred Williams of Carrier Mills, a "farm hand" for the Detroit Tigers, is now playing with Panama City in the Alabama-Florida league. He had spring training at Tigertown, rookie training base operated by Detroit and then was assigned to Valdosta of the Georgia-Florida league.

However, Panama City was "hurting" for infielders and Williams' contract was assigned to Panama City, where Williams was played at shortstop. He got off to a fast start, collecting 13 hits in his first 38 times at bat for a fine .344 average. However, he is out of the lineup at present with an injured foot.

It costs money to outfit a baseball player these days. Prices have nearly doubled since the end of World War II. For a shirt and pants the tag is $40 now, instead of $25, says The Sporting News, and the long hose have increased from $2.50 to $4.50. Belts that sold formerly for $1.50 now cost $2.50. Other items have gone up in proportion.

The publisher of the St. Louis Cardinal yearbook is going frantic, reports Dick Young in The Sporting News. The issue, just off the presses with pictures and sketches, contains ten players who are no longer with the team.

Cadillac

Expected Much...and Got More!

He had heard it time and again from his friends who drive Cadillacs.

He had heard, for instance, of Cadillac's marvelous performance . . . and of Cadillac's great comfort and handling ease . . . and of the satisfaction that comes to the man at the wheel.

And so, when he took the keys to his first Cadillac just a short while ago, he thought he knew what to expect from the "car of cars".

Well, here he is—a few miles out on his maiden journey—and he's learning a great truth about Cadillac: that nothing can adequately prepare a man for Cadillac ownership, save the experience itself.

How, for instance, could anyone fully foresee the joys of owning a new Cadillac car? It gives a man a sense of pride and a feeling of achievement and fulfillment that literally defy description.

Or how could anyone anticipate the thrill of driving a new Cadillac? Smooth and quiet . . . eager and responsive . . . restful and relaxing—it simply has no counterpart on the world's highways.

And how could anyone foreknow the many other pleasures that await him at the wheel . . . the joy of finding that his Cadillac, with all its quality and character, is among the most practical of motor cars to own and operate . . . and the satisfaction we believe he will find in his relationship with us as his Cadillac dealer—and in our honest concern with his motoring well-being.

Why not stop in soon for a personal preview of this wonderful experience?

We think you will be delighted to learn how quickly you can get delivery and to find how much your current car is worth to us in trade.

Gilmer Succeeds Osborne as Athletic Chairman

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Frank Gilmer, Illinois' new Athletic Commission chairman, said today he hopes to accomplish a "comeback" for boxing among fans, fighters and the general public.

Gilmer, a veteran ring official and former boxer and boxing coach, was named Monday to succeed the late Livingston E. Osborne as Athletic Commission chairman, effective June 1.

The new chairman said he believes boxing is "the cleanest in Illinois of anywhere in the country."

Gilmer, who will be 50 Thursday, is a lawyer and lives at Libertyville. Osborne's term, which he will fill out, expires Jan. 1, 1958. The chairman's salary is $5,000 a year.

Gilmer is past president of the Illinois Boxing Officials Assn. and has refereed five world championship fights, including the recent Chicago scrap between Johnny Saxton and Carmen Basilio.

He boxed and coached boxing at the University of Virginia, and later boxed professionally for a short time.

Fear Arabs May Copy Mau Mau Terrorist Tactics

ALGERIA (AP) — A trusted native servant's effort to murder his French employers created fear here today that Arab guerrillas may plan to copy the savage Mau Mau killers of central Africa.

A cook employed for 12 years by a provincial official in Djidjelli shot him and his wife in the back Monday, seriously wounding both. The Frenchman and other servants overpowered the cook before either victim was killed.

Mutilation murders of Frenchmen in this "overseas province" have been increasingly frequent in recent weeks, but the Djidjelli incident is the first in which the guerrillas are known to have turned a servant against his master.

Authorities here drew a chilling parallel between the new development and the Mau Mau reign of terror in British Kenya, where servants were often forced or persuaded to turn on employers who trusted them.

Meanwhile, sketchy official reports indicated some 75 persons were killed in scattered clashes between French troops and guerrillas Monday.

Heavy Rains Halt in Flooded Midwest Areas

By United Press

Weathermen gave promise today of generally warm weather, tempered by showers, for Memorial Day, as rain-soaked Indianapolis welcomed a pause in the drenching rains which had flooded some of its streets.

More than 2,000 central Indiana families were temporarily homeless.

"Warm weather is expected over most of the nation on Memorial Day," said the Washington Weather Bureau in a special forecast.

The shower area was expected to extend from the northern California high Sierras through the Midwest into New England, cover the southern states from the Carolinas and Florida into Texas. Northern border states from Michigan to Washington and parts of the Mid-Atlantic states, as well as the Pacific Coast, were expected to be dry.

Heavy rainfall ceased around Indianapolis, although scattered showers were forecast. Water drained from the infield of the huge Speedway track where officials said Wednesday's 500-mile Memorial Day auto race would be run.

Five Cairo Men Face Charges After Gambling Raids

CAIRO, Ill. (AP) — Five Cairo men face arraignment next Monday on gambling charges resulting from weekend raids on two nightclubs near Cairo.

Alexander County State's Atty. Michael O'Shea said charges were filed Monday against Otto Moore, Harris, and Robert Lavell in connection with a state police raid on the El Patio Club. Moore and Harris are charged with operating a gambling device and Lavell is charged with possession of a gaming device.

O'Shea said J. D. Bearden is charged with possession of a gaming device and his brother, Willard, is charged with operating a gambling device. They were arrested in a raid by sheriff's officers at Becky's Club Charming.

J. D. Bearden was fined $100 and costs last month on a plea of guilty to possession of gambling equipment.

Officers said they found dice games operating at both clubs early Sunday.

NLRB to Hold Hearing at Du Quoin On Unfair Charges

Beware Memorial Holiday's Highway Hazards

Collision between automobiles is the largest single cause of traffic deaths, producing nearly two-fifths of the 1955's 37,800 accident fatalities.

Driver error killed 29,800 people in 1955. Nearly half of these deaths were the result of exceeding speed limit. Speeding injured 702,560 others.

Young drivers, up to 24 years old, caused 12,550 fatalities. But the older group—25-to-64—caused 31,449 deaths—67.9 per cent of the total.

Inexperienced drivers were responsible for less than 2 per cent of fatalities. Nearly all 1955's death drivers had a year or more experience.

In 1955, 8,130 pedestrians signed their own death warrants by violating traffic safety rules. Most frequent fatal error was jaywalking.

As far as traffic accidents go, perhaps our holidays should be called horror-days. The accident curve always rises on holidays. So this Memorial Day, resolve to take every possible precaution when you drive. During 1955 there were 2,195,800 traffic casualties. That's one out of every 75 persons in the United States. Illustrated above are some angles of motoring accidents that are worth pondering. DON'T BECOME A MEMORIAL DAY STATISTIC! Data used were compiled by the Travelers Insurance Companies.

Red Cross Disaster Institute At Elks Club Well Attended

The Red Cross Disaster Institute held in Harrisburg at the Elks club recently was well attended. Ernest Duncan, disaster chairman, and Mrs. Sceriff Thompson, disaster nurse vice chairman, were pleased with the attendance from Saline county.

Fourteen registered and practical nurses from Saline county attended the meeting in the morning and 28 volunteers attended in the afternoon. Fifty other volunteers have signed up to help, but were unable to attend.

The purpose of this meeting was to explain the disaster program which, in a disaster involving injured and homeless, would involve setting up emergency hospitals if the capacity of the local hospitals could not meet the need, setting up emergency mass shelters and feeding centers, knowing all available facilities and the number that could be taken care of in case of a disaster.

The local committees will be appointed from the list of volunteers by Mr. Duncan and each committee will set up a plan which will be based on local facilities. The actual disaster plan for Saline county will have to be worked out by the local volunteers who are familiar with the buildings and the stocks carried by the local stores, so that after a quick survey the committee would know what to request from each business.

Miss Rebecca Pond, nursing service field representative from the Midwestern area office of the American National Red Cross, was in charge of the meeting for the nurses, assisted by Bob Kirchner, general field representative from the Midwestern area office. The afternoon session for other volunteers was in charge of Jim Hickey, assistant director of disaster in the Midwestern area.

It was explained at the meeting that if Civil Defense should need the Red Cross disaster volunteers that the Civil Defense authorities would be in charge in cases of war-caused disaster. But, in case of natural disaster the Red Cross would be in charge. The responsibilities of government agencies and public health departments were explained and how the Red Cross worked with these agencies in certain functions, such as sanitation, warning, evacuation and rescue, when the help of Red Cross volunteers was needed.

Mr. Duncan feels that with so many volunteers willing to help that a plan can be set up for Saline county which would be ready to function if needed.

Nurses and volunteers from Perry, Jackson, White and Gallatin counties also attended the Disaster Institute.

Annual Raleigh Field Day Tour Tuesday, June 5

The annual Raleigh Field Day will be held Tuesday, June 5, at 1:30 p. m. at which time all interested persons will tour the experimental plots at the station.

L. B. Miller, professor of soil fertility from the University of Illinois, will be the speaker and lead the discussion as well as conduct a tour of the plots.

All interested persons, or agricultural classes are invited to attend. New fertilizers and new varieties will be discussed. The effects of different soil treatments on growing crops and a review of the results of other years of effects on soil treatment will be given.

The pay-off for soil treatments on the Raleigh Experiment Field have been large. Crop yield increases resulting from the use of limestone have been worth $20 per acre as an average for the past four years; those from phosphate $9 an acre, and from potash $8. The crop rotation is corn, spring oats, mixed hay and wheat with a legume catch crop. The soil type at Raleigh is Bluford silt loam.

Desperado Kills Deputy, Technician Helping Blind Man Across Street

TOLEDO, Ohio (U.P.)—A speeding desperado shot a sheriff's deputy to death today and killed an X-ray technician helping a blind man across a street in a wild bid for freedom.

Sheriff's Deputy Ray Westover was shot fatally when he and State Highway Patrolman Robert Newell tried to arrest the gunman and his two companions at a roadblock.

Newell, in an exchange of gunfire with the three Negroes, wounded one of them in the neck. The gunman, leaving his two companions behind, jumped back into his auto after shooting Westover and headed west.

Officers said that when the gunman reached the second roadblock, a police cruiser across the street in front of St. Charles hospital, he lost control of the car.

The car hit and killed Ann Martin, 19, an X-ray technician at the hospital, and critically injured Jay Francis, 31, a blind man whom Miss Martin was helping across the street. Francis was en route to the hospital, where he worked in the X-ray department developing film.

Francis suffered critical back and pelvic injuries. The gunman was arrested at the scene and taken to the hospital for treatment, then taken to jail.

After striking the couple, officers arrested the driver of the auto, identified as John Bowns, 35, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Arrested at the first roadblock and taken to city prison were men who gave their names as Walter Bryant, 32, New York, and Philip Powell, 24, Philadelphia.

For a long time, people of Europe used tomato plants only as ornaments for gardens. The red fruit was supposed to be poisonous.

Fascists Gain Control in Italian Elections

ROME (U.P.)—Pro-Western parties lost their full control of Rome and other key cities in Italy today in local elections that reduced Communist strength but left the balance of power at city hall in the hands of the Fascists.

The Christian Democrats repelled an all-out Communist front bid to capture the government of Rome, but the race here and in Milan, Venice and Genoa ended in such a deadlock between leftists and the center parties that the balance of power passed to the Fascists and Monarchists on the extreme right.

The pro-Western Christian Democrats and their allies were victims of their own electoral law. Previously, the party scoring the most votes received two-thirds of the seats on a city council. But the Christian Democrats revised the law so that each party was allotted seats on a percentage basis. This attempt to satisfy the minor parties cost the center group full control.

Lions Club to Sponsor Two Children to Salvation Army Camp

Members of the Harrisburg Lions club, at their regular meeting Monday night, voted to sponsor two children to the Salvation Army's summer camp for underprivileged children.

The children will be sponsored for a one-week camping period and will be selected by the officers of the local Salvation Army post.

Other action by the Lions included the appointing of a committee to work out details for the construction of a shelter house in the area set aside for a park on the shore on Lake Harrisburg.

The committee—Amos Doorn, Pat Atkinson and L. G. Martin—will determine from city officials where the roadway will be built and select the shelter site in accordance with other city plans for the park.

Money for the shelter construction was raised through a wrestling show promoted in Harrisburg by the Lions late in March.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
Written for NEA Service

The courts throughout the nation are filled with cases of disagreement. The great majority of disagreements result from misunderstandings, from lack of factual information or from the emotional dramatization of trivial and insignificant incidents.

Frequently an innocent statement is misinterpreted and the unrelated matter becomes serious. Important differences of opinion are resolved by discussion, by compromise or by arbitration. Little misunderstandings are not faced clearly. They are allowed to grow and take on imaginary significance.

Divorces, neighborhood battles and even international wars develop from trivia which could have been solved with patience and study of facts. But the trivia must be faced before involvements begin to pile up.

Many a disagreement would vanish into thin air if we were merely to see the viewpoint of the other person. Both parties involved in a difference of opinion are so limited in their viewpoints that they are not willing to consider any side but their own. They shut their eyes to simple facts.

Religion never teaches us to surrender our moral convictions, but it does require man to rise above self belligerence and give consideration to others. It does teach us to love instead of hate.

Four Communist Leaders Executed In Soviet Republic

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union disclosed today it has executed four Communist leaders in Azerbaijan, including the former premier of that Soviet republic which borders on Iran.

They were charged with being accomplices of former Soviet Secret Police Chief Lavrenti P. Beria, who was executed following the death of the late Josef Stalin in 1953.

Former Azerbaijan Premier Mir-Djarfar Bagirov was the most prominent of the four condemned men. He had been leader of the Azerbaijan Communist Party and a close friend of Beria. Bagirov lost his job as Azerbaijan Communist Party leader the day Beria was arrested—July 19, 1953.

Father Tells of Abandoning Baby on Doorstep

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—A young father told police today he and his wife abandoned their 10-month-old son on a Terre Haute doorstep because everything they did for the child seemed a failure.

Sam Sheidon of St. Louis was held on child abandonment charges.

He drove here from a suburb of Rochester, N. Y., Monday and explained his wife could not come because she is expecting their third child.

Their baby boy has had three major brain operations to correct a "soft spot" on his head caused by a stroller accident, Sheldon told Prosecutor Jack Jett.

He said they left the baby on a doorstep while passing through Terre Haute to Rochester last week because the child remained in poor health and everything they did for him appeared to be wrong.

The baby's arm and shoulder were in a cast when he was found. Sheldon said he and his wife had thought of taking the boy to a Terre Haute orphanage, but found it did not accept medical cases.

Then they decided to leave the baby at an orphanage, he told Jett. But they changed their minds and left the infant on the doorstep, hoping it was that of a nursing home, he said.

Earlier, Sheldon told authorities that financial troubles forced them to abandon the child. But investigators discovered Sheldon makes $50 a week at an aircraft factory and is building his own house.

President Asks More Funds for Atomic Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today for a stepped-up nuclear energy program for both peaceful uses and weapons.

The President specifically asked Congress to authorize a program to cost 112 1/2 million dollars during fiscal 1957, which starts July 1. The White House, in announcing a request for supplemental funds for the Atomic Energy Commission, said some of the money would be used on "design, development, testing and production of weapons and the development of military propulsion reactors."

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said some funds also would be used "on an accelerated program" in the development of civilian atomic power reactors.

He said funds also are being sought for plant acquisition and construction needed to provide additional facilities for the expanded military and civilian reactor program.

The money is required so the Recess Ransom Case After Witness Refuses to Testify

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A federal grand jury which reopened the missing Greenleaf ransom money case has recessed until June 11.

The jury's recess followed the refusal of a key witness, John Hager, to testify. Hager, a former Ace Cab Co. driver, tipped police on the whereabouts of Carl Austin Hall, who was later executed for the kidnap-murder of Bobbie Greenleaf of Kansas City.

Hager told authorities he had repeated his story numerous times to grand juries and to federal agents, and that he did not plan to do so again. He pleaded the Fifth Amendment, claiming his testimony might tend to incriminate him.

Hager was the fifth witness to refuse to testify in the current investigation. The first four were upheld by Federal Judge George H. Moore.

United States can take advantage of the "recent technological advances in the military part of the program," Hagerty added.

The administration's original estimate on AEC operating expenses for fiscal 1957 was $1,672,000,000. The original estimate for plant acquisition and construction was $144,200,000.

Rep. Arends Says Democrats Obstruct GOP on Civil Rights

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Rep. Leslie C. Arends (R-Ill.) charged today that Democrats in Congress have tried to sidetrack civil rights bills because they don't want to "face up" to the issue.

Arends, minority whip in the House, said in a speech prepared for delivery at the state Republican convention that Democrats are "just talking" about civil rights while "obstructing" GOP efforts to "deal with" the problem.

He said Democrats "have sought to block" every proposal coming before Congress that "directly or indirectly deals with civil rights" or with racial segregation.
